Sugar City Notes

(From Sugar City Times)

Thos. R. Cutler Sen., general manager for the Utah and Idaho Sugar Companies, Mr. Engalls, consulting engineer for the above mentioned companies, and J. H. Gardner, assistant general manager for the Utah companies, were in Sugar last week. Messrs Gardner and Engalls returned to Utah Friday evening and Mr. Cutler went to Island Park with his son Thos. R. Cutler, Jr. Mrs. Emma Potter of Tremont, Utah, daughter of David Sanders, was here visiting last Friday. Mr. Potter has been visiting with relatives in Rexburg for the past week.

Frank Hyland of Terrace is in the city awaiting word from Washington about the difficulty he is having with the Southern Pacific company with regard to the operating of trains on the old line over Promontory Point. He says that he has been unable to get the railroad company to haul freight or passengers to Terrace since he first commenced action against it to have it run trains over the old line to connect with other points on the line. Mr. Hyland claims that he owns government land within the railroad limit, and that the company under a ninety-year contract with the government is under the necessity of operating trains over the Terrace road. Mr. Hyland states he means to see this matter through, regardless of all cost, and if the government will not compel the company to operate, he will look to it for all damages sustained by reason of such failure.—Utah State Journal.

An exchange says that you can tell a successful farmer by looking at his horses; you can tell a slovenly woman by the looks of her hair; you can tell the dry goods box statesman by looking at the patches on the bosom of his pantaloons; you can tell the poisonous serpents by the bluntness of his tail, but the easiest thing of all, you can tell the enterprising merchant by a glance at the local papers. This is not divine revelation, but it is business and gospel truth.

Sunday Services.

At the regular services last Sunday afternoon 1st Counsellor D E Manning presided. Singing by choir and congregation. Prayer by Elder Peter Jensen. The sacrament was administered by Elders John Manning and Francis H. Edmunds. The meeting was given over to the home missionaries.

The first speaker was Elder Nels Madsen, who made some interesting remarks on the following subjects: Necessity of spiritual food, Sabbath observance and sacrament meetings, Calamities that follow the wicked.

Elder P. F. Madsen was the next speaker. He referred to the excellent building the saints of this ward had for holding meetings; was pleased with the spirit existing in our midst and felt that the big hall should be well filled with the people of the ward each Sunday.

Singing. Benediction by Charles Edwards.

After meeting the regular choir practice was held, a good turnout being present.
